BAT MAN

First, the amazing cover, which shows Batman in a dramatic pose, with the words "BATMAN" in large, bold letters. The cover is a classic example of the "Golden Age" style, with a bright yellow background and a large, stylized "B" in the center.
 The words "BATMAN" are written in a bold, sans-serif font, with the "B" being particularly large and prominent.

BATMAN THE RIDDLE OF THE MAN WHO WALKED BACKWARDS!

THE "WALKING BACKWARDS"

When you
 see this man
 walking backwards,
 you'll know
 he's a villain!

This is a classic comic book cover for Batman. The title "BATMAN" is prominently displayed at the top in large, bold letters. Below it, the subtitle "THE RIDDLE OF THE MAN WHO WALKED BACKWARDS!" is written in a smaller, but still bold, font. The main illustration shows Batman in a cave, looking towards a large, muscular man who is walking backwards. The man is wearing a white mask and a blue cape. The scene is set in a cave with rocky walls and a large, glowing yellow light source in the background. The overall style is reminiscent of the "Golden Age" of comic books, with bright colors and a dramatic, action-oriented scene.
